Excess information

Under most sections, you will not be covered for the first £75 of any event unless otherwise stated.

section 1 – Medical and Other Expenses.

The most we will pay in total for each person is as follows:

|---------------------------|--------------------|
| Medical expenses | £10 million |
| Emergency dental expenses | £250 |
| Funeral expenses | £2,500 |
| Hospital benefit | £1,000 |

What's covered

Medical expenses

- If you are ill or injured or you die on a trip, we will pay all necessary and reasonable expenses, up to the policy limits above, for:
 - medical and hospital treatment (including ambulance and rescue services to take you to hospital); and
 - emergency dental treatment to treat sudden pain up to £250 only.

Extra travel and accommodation

- Extra travelling expenses to return to your home in the UK.
 - Extra accommodation expenses if your illness or injury forces you to stay longer than you had originally booked.
- The travel and accommodation expenses for one person to stay with you and travel home with you, if this is medically advised.

What's not covered

- Any medical, dental or hospital expenses that arise in the UK (or Channel Islands if you live there permanently).
- An anticipated event.
- Any treatment or help where, given your physical or mental condition You should not have travelled or it would have been reasonable for you to have consulted your medical practitioner, prior to the booking or taking of the trip about whether or not it was appropriate to travel.
- Any claim caused by drinking too much alcohol or alcohol abuse.
- We do not expect you to avoid drinking alcohol on your trips or holidays, but we will not cover any medical claims arising because you have drunk so much alcohol that your judgement is seriously affected.
- Any claim related directly or indirectly to a Pre-Existing Medical Condition.
that:-
 - You suffer from; and
 - you did not tell us about; and
 - we did not agree cover for it in writing.

After you have paid for this policy, you must tell us if you are diagnosed with:

- any heart condition, any circulatory condition (problems with blood flow, including high blood pressure) or any breathing condition (including asthma)
- any type of cancer
- any joint and bone condition;
- any gastrointestinal (stomach) condition; or
- diabetes

We will then decide if we can provide you with cover on your existing terms. We may ask you to pay an extra premium, add special conditions to the policy or exclude cover for that medical condition.

If we cannot provide cover for the medical condition diagnosed after you paid for the policy, or if you do not want to pay the extra premium, you can call us on 0845 603 3591 and make a cancellation claim if you have booked and paid for a journey that you have not yet made. Or, you can cancel your policy and we will send you a pro-rata refund, as long as you have not travelled or made a claim.

section 2 – Cancellation

The most we will pay in total for each person is as follows:

Cancellation £3,000

What's covered

We will pay you for all unused travel and accommodation costs (including excursion, car hire and other charges) that you have paid or are under contract to pay, if it is necessary and unavoidable for you to cancel your trip before you leave your home or place of business, whichever is later, for one of the following reasons.

- You become ill or are injured and a qualified doctor certifies that it is medically necessary for you to cancel your trip.
- You die.
- A close relative or close business associate of yours living in the UK is ill, injured or dies.
- Anyone you had planned to stay with or travel with is ill, injured or dies.
- You or anyone you are travelling with are not able to travel or are instructed to stay at home by the police (or other recognised emergency services) due to serious damage to your home or place of business in the UK caused by fire, aircraft, explosion, storm, flood, subsidence, vandalism or theft.

What's not covered

- Air passenger duty (airline taxes) as you can recover this direct from your tour operator or airline.
- Any expenses resulting from you changing your mind about travelling or continuing with your trip.
- Any expenses resulting from any loss of enjoyment of your trip (such as not liking your resort or hotel).
- Any claim arising from circumstances or an event that you could reasonably foresee or knew about when you bought this insurance or booked the trip, and that you knew could lead to your trip being cancelled (for example, a serious medical condition of a close relative, business associate or travelling companion).
- An anticipated event.
- The transport operator or their agents refuse to transport You, a close relative or Your travelling companion because they consider that You or they are not fit to travel.
- Any treatment or help where, given your physical or mental condition You should not have travelled or it would have been reasonable for you to have consulted your medical practitioner, prior to the booking or taking of the trip about whether or not it was appropriate to travel.
- Any claim related directly or indirectly to a Pre-Existing Medical Condition.

that:-

- You suffer from; and
- you did not tell us about; and
- we did not agree cover for it in writing.

section 3 – Curtailment (cutting short your trip)

The most we will pay in total for each person is as follows:

Curtailment £3,000

Please note the following

- Payment for a claim for unused accommodation, travel or other costs will cover the proportional costs for the number of days of use lost and will be worked out from the date you return home. For example, if you curtail halfway through your trip, we will only consider paying half the amount you originally paid for the trip.

What's covered

We will pay you all reasonable travel expenses and any unused pre-booked travel and accommodation costs (including excursion, car hire and other charges) that you have paid or are under contract to pay, if it is necessary and unavoidable for you to urgently return to the UK for one of the following reasons.

- You become ill or are injured and the doctor treating you certifies that it is medically necessary for you to return to the UK.
- You die.
- A close relative or close business associate of yours living in the UK is ill, injured or dies.
- Anyone you had planned to stay with or travel with is ill, injured or dies.
- You have to go into hospital due to an accident, illness or injury that occurs during your trip and you spend over 24 hours as an inpatient.

What's not covered

- Any curtailment expenses that are not authorised beforehand by our assistance services.
- Any expenses resulting from you changing your mind about continuing with your trip.
- Any claim arising from circumstances or an event that you could reasonably foresee or knew about when you bought this insurance or booked the trip, and that you knew could lead to your trip being curtailed (for example, a serious medical condition of a close relative, business associate or travelling companion).
- An anticipated event.
- The transport operator or their agents refuse to transport You, a close relative or Your travelling companion because they consider that You or they are not fit to travel.
- Any treatment or help where, given your physical or mental condition You should not have travelled or it would have been reasonable for you to have consulted your medical practitioner, prior to the booking or taking of the trip about whether or not it was appropriate to travel.
- Any expenses resulting from weather, climatic or environmental conditions at your destination.
- Any claim related directly or indirectly to a Pre-Existing Medical Condition.

that:-

- You suffer from; and
- you did not tell us about; and
- we did not agree cover for it in writing.

section 4 – Personal possessions, luggage, money & passport

The most we will pay in total for each person is as follows:

Personal possessions and luggage £1,500

(This can be increased to £3,000 if you buy extra cover – annual policy only)

Delayed luggage – emergency replacement items £200

Important extra limits are shown below

£300 is the most we will pay for high-risk items in total for each person.

£300 is the most we will pay for any single item. A camera with attachments or a matching set of earrings and necklace, for example, are considered as a single item.

What's covered

- Loss or theft of or damage to your personal possessions and luggage.
- The extra expenses you may have to pay to replace your passport or travel documents if they have been lost, stolen or damaged outside the UK.
- Replacing essential toiletries, medication and clothing if your luggage is delayed for more than 12 hours after your arrival at your final outward destination.

What's not covered

Unless you report the matter to the nearest police authority within 24 hours of discovering it and you get a police report in writing, claims for:

- any loss of, theft or deliberate damage to your personal possessions or money;
- high-risk items or money you have not carried in your hand luggage while you are travelling.
- personal possessions or money in your accommodation.
- personal possessions damaged, lost or stolen as a result of a terrorist act.
- traveller's cheques or credit or debit cards.

New-for-old cover

Please note the following.

- We will pay the replacement cost of the item or we will repair or replace the item as new (new for old), except clothing and towels where we will make a deduction for wear and tear.

Personal money

This section covers your travel money against loss or theft. If you make a claim, you will need to provide evidence that you had the money, so please keep any receipts you have.

If your money is lost or stolen and you report it to the police, we will pay a single emergency cash advance of up to £100 for each insured adult, for each incident. You must then repay this amount to us when you return home or we can take it from the amount we pay for your claim. We will not offer a cash advance under any other circumstances.

We will pay you up to £500 if your Personal money is lost or stolen while you are on your journey.

The cash or bank note limit is £250 for each adult and £125 for each child.

What's covered

- Loss or theft of your money.
